

1. ILWAD GABOSE is a London based artist with a background in Psychology. Each piece is created using mixed media conveying a sense of mood and a deep sense to nurture emotion until it radiates from the canvas. Visit www.imgabose.com for more information and follow @ilwadgabose on Instagram.

2. JENNIFER LAPIERRE is a California based artist specialising in plaster and cracked linen large-scale abstracts, lyrical layers and textures. Through an atmospheric and evocative lens, her work is meant to move, whether it be to calm, complement or add tension. Visit jenniferlapiere.com and follow @jenniferlapierefineart on Instagram.

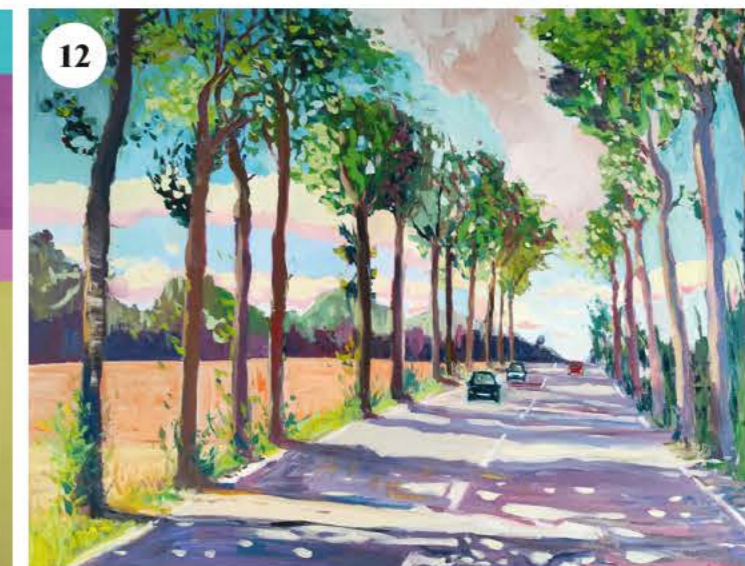

3. LIBERTÉ GRACE is a contemporary artist and auteur filmmaker working in the mediums of video, installation, drawing and photography. Her works have screened and been exhibited in cultural institutions in Australia, France, and Italy, including the Cannes Film Festival, Art Basel, Art Gallery of NSW, and Times Square, New York. Visit www.LiberteGrace.com and follow @libertegrace on Instagram.

4. KATHARINE SHUMAN is an environmentalist artist whose paintings reveal the inextricable connections between humanity and nature. Her colourful food and landscape compositions create spaces to consider the underlying significance of these everyday moments. Visit katharineshuman.com and follow @katharineshuman.art on Instagram to learn more. Pictured is 'Indulgence', oil on canvas, 24" x 24", 2023.

5. AMY RIMMER is an abstract mixed media artist who is inspired by nature, human experiences and emotion. A former pediatric nurse, she has been working as a professional artist since December 2022 and has shown work in numerous markets, festivals. All original works and no prints. Visit www.amyrimmerart.com and follow @amy.paints on Instagram.

6. KRETTA JÄRVENPÄÄ is an artist and photographer from Helsinki, Finland. Since 2016, she has been making floral arrangements and photographing them to capture every detail. She strives for perfection, aiming for her work to transcend typical photography. Her creations offer an escape from reality, presenting a floral fantasy. Visit kreettakreetta.com and follow @kreettakreetta on Instagram.

7. JILL NICHOLS' paintings explore our divine cosmos's earthbound and outer expanses. She is represented internationally in prominent collections that include the Vatican. Pictured is, "Piece of Phi – gold peach teal" archival museum quality print, starting at $320. Visit jillnichols.com or follow @jill_nichols_artist on Instagram.

8. KAREN TYLER is an established contemporary artist from Alexandria, Virginia. Karen paints large abstracted interior scenes rendered with bold colours and layered textures. Visit www.Karentylerart.com and follow @KRTylerart on Instagram.

9. MARIA ROGERS is a mixed-media artist working at Wimbledon Art Studios where she paints and creates 3D work using a mixture of materials, such as clay, wire, aluminium copper and paint, as shown in this little sculpture. Visit mariaroart.uk or email mariaroart@protonmail.com to find out more.

10. ALLISON WALKER is a New York printmaker. Her work pulls from stories, myths, and sacred texts to focus on the questions that unite humanity (the answers often separate us). With commissions, she captures client's favourite stories or personal symbols to bring their glow into their home. Visit allisonwalkerart.com and follow @allisonwalkerart on Instagram.

11. AHLAM AMRANI (Netherlands, 1986) creates vibrant artscapes blending cubism and art-deco with her European-Moroccan heritage. Skilled in colour, her unique compositions narrate a path of rediscovering dreams and aspirations, encouraging viewers to find light in darkness, follow their hearts, and embrace bold risks. She explores the dualism in life with round vs. geometrical forms. Pictured is "Inner Peace." Discover more at www.ahlamamraniart.com and follow @ahlamamrani.art on Instagram.

12. Immerse yourself in the neo-impressionist world of French artist LINDA CLERGET, where vibrant landscapes come to life. Discover her works at lindaclerget.com and follow her artistic journey @linda.clerget on Instagram.